

I support the FIST action. If we eliminate code from the requirements for amateur radio licensing we will have nothing but additional citizen band. Although numbers are depleting, it is important to keep this emergency communications link filled with responsible and dedicated people.